

Hall of Great Western Performers

Criteria for Induction for Inductees into the Hall of Great Western Performers of the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum will be selected following careful evaluation of the following:

1. Significant contributions by a performer, living or deceased, to the perpetuation of the Western film, television, radio or theatrical.
2. Outstanding career achievement, including but not limited to performances in five motion picture, television radio or theatrical stage productions.
3. Nominee projects the traditional Western ideals of honesty, integrity and self-sufficiency in career endeavors over a lifetime in film, television, radio or theatrical stage.
4. The Board of Directors of the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum may consider an outstanding television series to receive a Special Directors Award.