Small Works, Great Wonders Winter Art Sale

Small Works, Great Wonders is an art event created to recognize emerging artists and collectors of fine art by showcasing paintings and sculpture of the highest quality. The sale is in keeping with the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum's long standing commitment to the recognition and exhibition of outstanding contemporary Western art.

Artists wishing to be selected to participate in Small Works, Great Wonders may submit work for consideration. Applications must meet the following criteria:

- No more than four (4) digital images representing the best and most recent examples of your artwork
- Images must be of professional quality without background distractions
- They must be JPG format at a maximum resolution of 150 dpi saved to a CD
- Each image file must be saved with the title of the work only
- Include on the CD, in a separate PDF file, the following information:
 - Title, dimensions and medium of each of the images submitted
 - An artist biography not to exceed ½ page

Entries must be sent to the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum between January 15 and June 15 of the current year to be considered for exhibition.

Selection will be made by July 15 and applicants will be notified of their status. If selected, artists must abide by entry guidelines for Small Works, Great Wonders (see below.)

Submission materials will not be returned.
